Life At

The Academy

The Academy provides a learning experience that is very important to the student. Each aspect from dorm life to kitchen crew adds something to the growth of that person. To an only child, sharing a room with a roommate is a new experience and sparks new friendship. Life in a dorm is very different from life at home. Many friendships develop throughout each year. These relationships with peers help to make rough decisions easier. When there is a friend you can turn to, life seems simpler. There is nothing more important than having the support of those around you, whether they are students or faculty members. The Academy supplies this and more and helps the individual develop to his full potential.

DEDICATION

Every year the yearbook staff must get together to decide on the dedication of the yearbook.

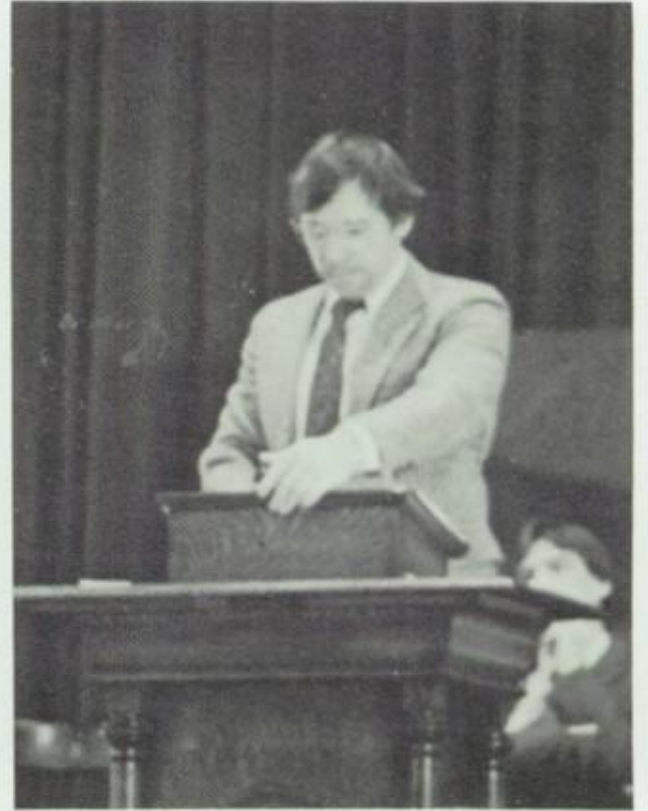

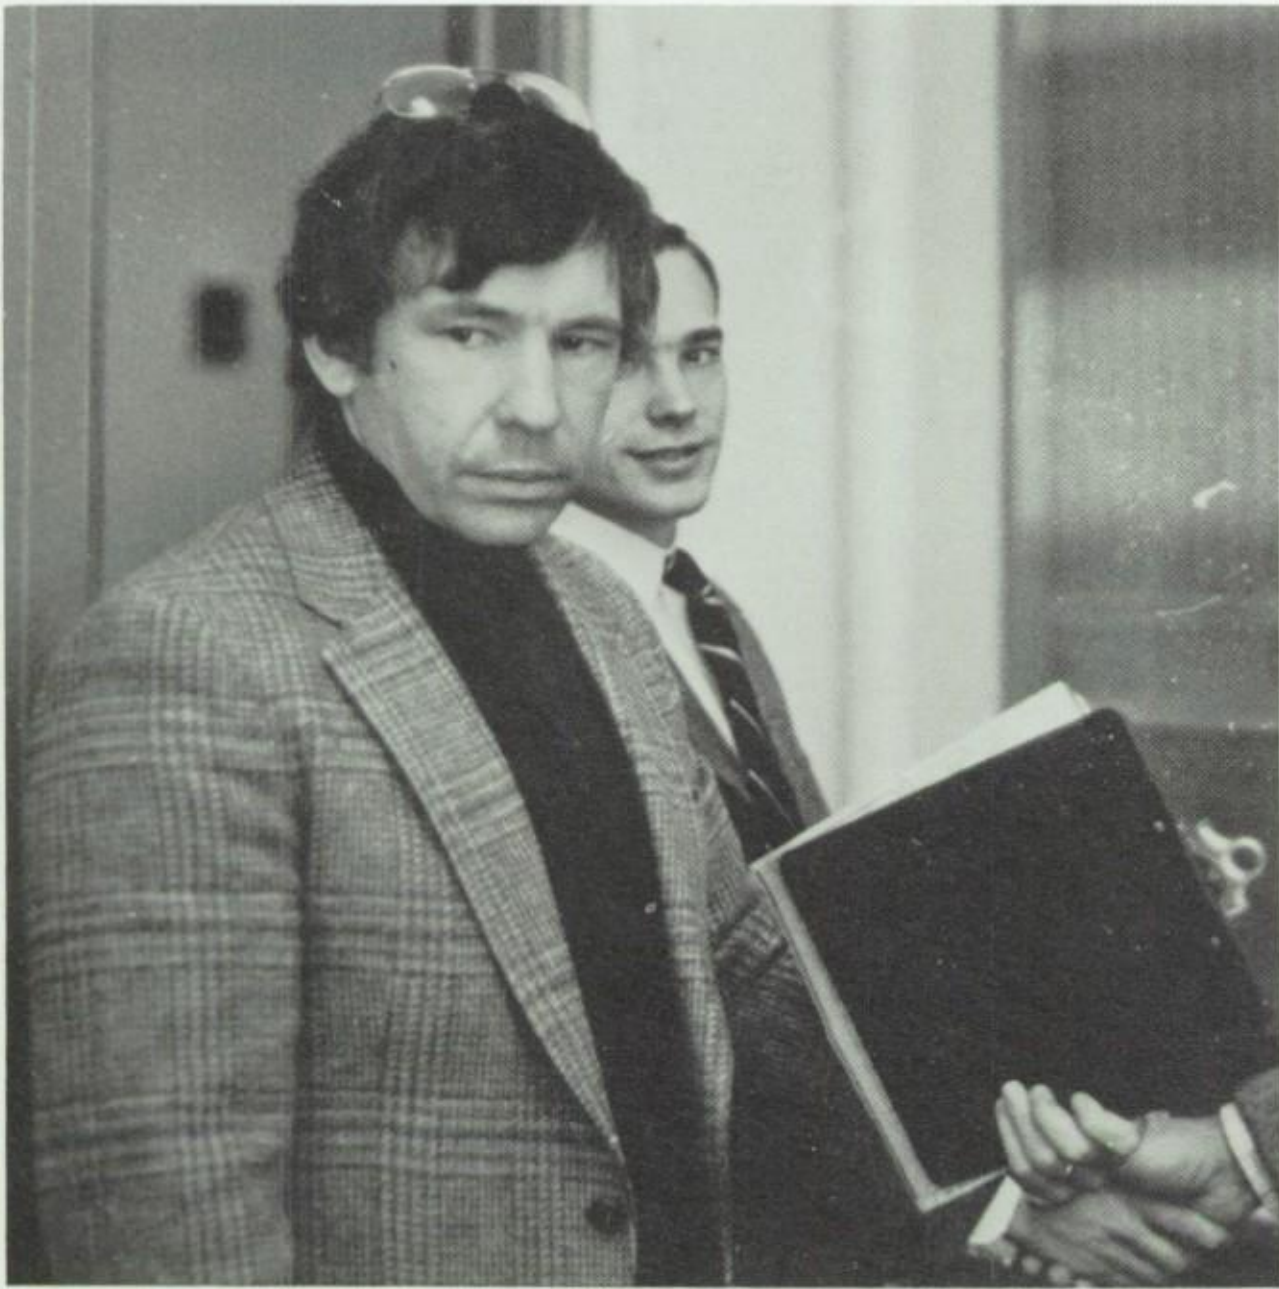

The 1984 yearbook staff is proud to dedicate this book to Mr. Robert L. Long, acting this year as our headmaster.

Mr. Long was born in Hanover, PA, graduated from Tufts University with a B.A. in History/Economics and a Masters in Education. In 1974, he came to Vermont Academy as a history teacher and coach of football and lacrosse. He has stayed at V.A. since then except for one year (1980-81) when he went to private industry. Mr. Long became the dean of students and assistant Headmaster the following year. Mr. Long agreed to be acting headmaster for the 1983-84 academic year.

As a teacher and coach he has brought out the best of his student/players by working them hard and helping them in any way they needed.

As an Asst. Headmaster and interim Headmaster, he could always be relied upon to look at problems carefully and to consistently come up with good answers, which has made him trusted by students and faculty alike.

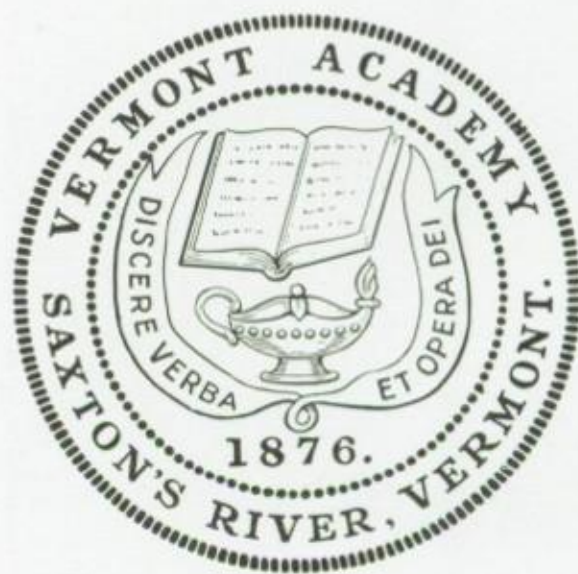

Mr. Long has given many things to Vermont Academy with honest and great enthusiasm which we all appreciate deeply. For these reasons the book has been dedicated to you, Mr. Long, and thank you for everything you have done for V.A.

FALL

Soccer

There were two new aspects to soccer in the fall. One was the addition of a girls J.V. team. The other was the fact that both the Varsity girls and the Varsity boys won the Lakes Region Championships.

The Varsity boys had a slow start but their skills quickly improved to bring them to a winning season with a record of thirteen wins, two losses and two ties.

The girls Varsity team started strong and remained so throughout the season. They had one loss to Stoneleigh-Burnham and two scoreless ties against K.U.A.

The girls J.V. team was a young and inexperienced team which started the season not knowing what to expect. They did not have a very statistically successful season, but they came out of it with a new feeling of team spirit.

J.V. boys did very well both statistically and in the feeling of team spirit. They didn't quite have the winning season that the Varsity teams did, but they deserved to be recognized.

The boys Reserve Soccer team had a strong season with a record of nine wins and two losses. For a young team they fared well.

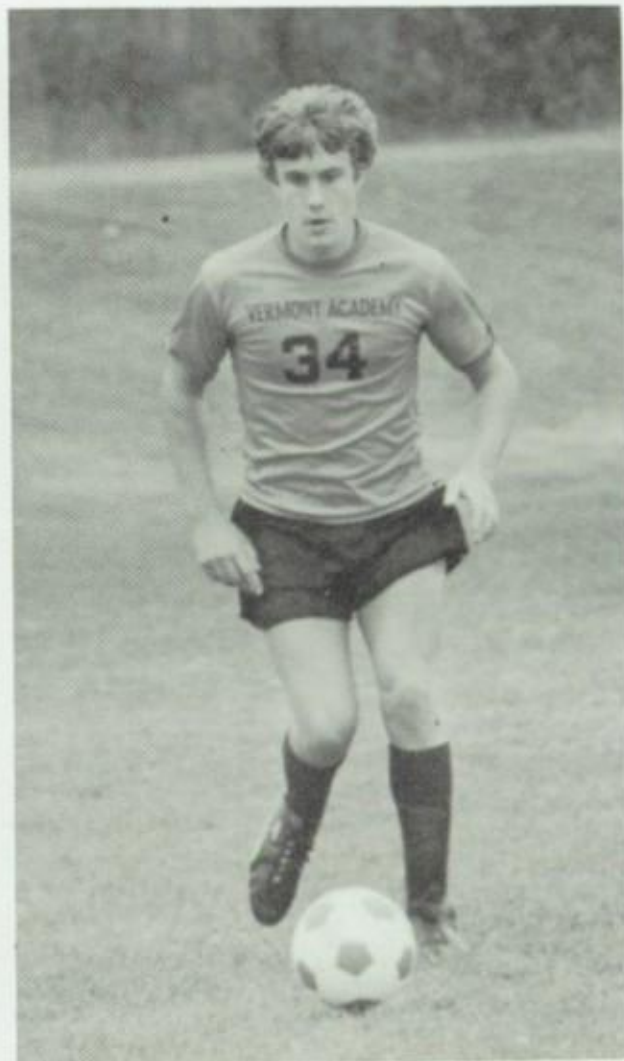

All the teams did well and the school is proud to have had these teams represent Vermont Academy.

Football

This year's Varsity football squad was extremely successful with their offensive and defensive tactics. Their team spirit and enthusiasm pulled them to the position of Lakes Region champions. With a record of five wins and two losses, the team enjoyed their final victory in a game versus Kimball Union Academy.

The J.V. football team did not have as successful a season in terms of wins and losses but it was successful in the manner that the team learned a true feeling of sportsmanship and team spirit. The squad was comprised mostly of young players, some of whom had never played before.

On the whole, the season was exciting and sometimes disappointing. There was a lot of team spirit in both teams, and the Varsity team will be remembered as the Lakes Region champions of 1983.

Cross Country

The cross country team started the season with the main nucleus of last years team plus a number of new and talented runners. The team had it's work cut out for it due to the fact they were a small team. The runners had to place very well for the school to win the meet. The team did well under the careful guidance of their new coaches, Paula Donahue and Tim Caldwell. The team looks forward to running next year and will be returning with most of this years team.

Cycling

The cycling team had a good season and one that will be remembered. It was a special season because the first woman cyclist joined the Vermont Academy team, Whitney Fuller. The team raced well throughout the season and the personal statistics improved constantly. As the team traveled throughout New England they upheld their reputation as being a good team with a lot of spirit and V.A. should be proud to have such a team representing them.

ORIENTATION 1983

Wet, wild, trust, good times — all these words describe this year's orientation, though there were many nervous stomachs and sweaty palms, the new students headed off to their first meeting with smiles on their faces. The faculty leaders tried their best to make everyone feel at home. The ever popular name games were played and slowly the atmosphere became more relaxed.

The new day brought everyone out for a hearty breakfast before the day's activities began. Out onto the lawn they streamed, in teams shirts of all the colors of the Rainbow, making the day bright and colorful. The games were exciting to say the least. Mr. Billmeier did a wonderful job of organizing the games, both old and new, and introducing the most popular event of the weekend, the water slide. Made up of forty feet of plastic, wet down by a garden hose, it supplied a quick and exhilarating way to beat the "not yet fall" heat.

The entire weekend made the new students and faculty feel more at home at V.A. and prepared them, somewhat, for the onslaught of returning students.

MOUNTAIN DAY

Will the bell ever ring? Come on, it has to be Mountain Day, I haven't done any of my homework! You're stalling sir, just a few more minutes and the truth will be known. It's been ten minutes, I guess I was . . . ring, ring, ring, Whoopee!! I knew it all along. Let's see, I have to go to Fuller for my instructions. I wonder where my class is going? Freshmen to the Geist's Meadow, Sophomores and Juniors to Lockerby Pastures, and the Seniors go to Crystal Rock, but that is another matter.

We will convene at ten o'clock to head off for a day of adventure, it is pretty cloudy but the weatherman has promised us a beautiful day. I think I'll play frisbee, or I could play touch football. Oh, it's time for lunch, Arnie burgers, cider, brownies, and apples. What a selection. More frisbee and fun and then I have to head back to the everyday routine at good ole Vermont Academy.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween is known for its strange characters, but on that dark night in October Halloween met it's match. There were groups of adorable little animals, angels all in white and a mysterious pumpkin-head who had the misfortune of being pierced by an arrow through the head. A wild-eyed pair of twins wandered through Shephardson Hall, and a spectacular entrance was made by King Neptune and his loyal jester.

Arnie went all out for this festive occasion providing an excellent meal of everything from the traditional bats wings to witches brew. The meal provided a ghoultritious start for what promised to be a breathtaking evening.

The monsters and their friends began their horrifying, yet fun, parade. An untrustworthy tribe of Sheiks passed. Lucky for us they parked their camels outside. A group of Punk Rockers passed and were nearly thrown out for their destruction of the fashion world.

The moment that every monster, witch, and yes, even Marilyn Monroe had been waiting for finally came and The Grand Prize was announced. The Ninja, a terrifying martial arts expert took the prize. All the costumes from the prettiest to the most vulgar deserve an honorable mention. They were great!!!!!!

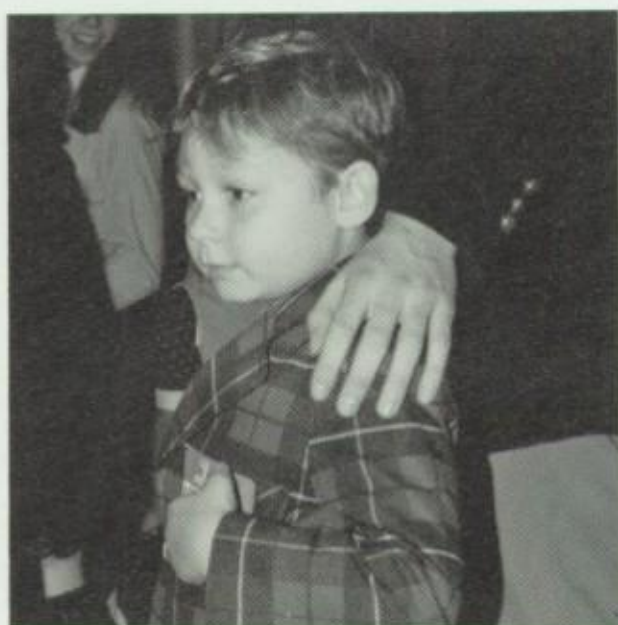

KURN HATTIN CHRISTMAS PARTY

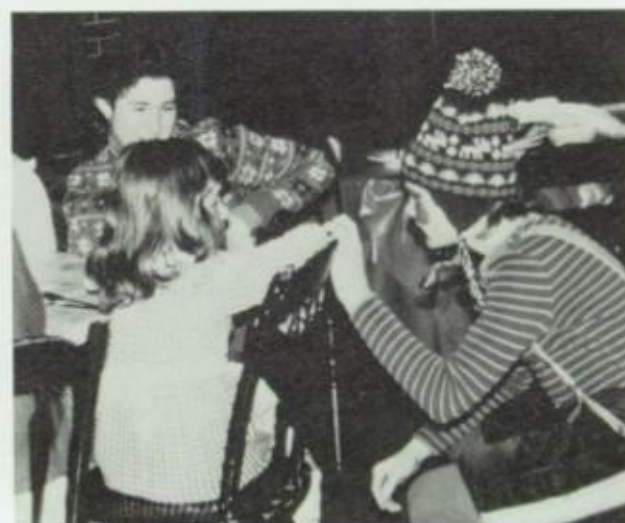

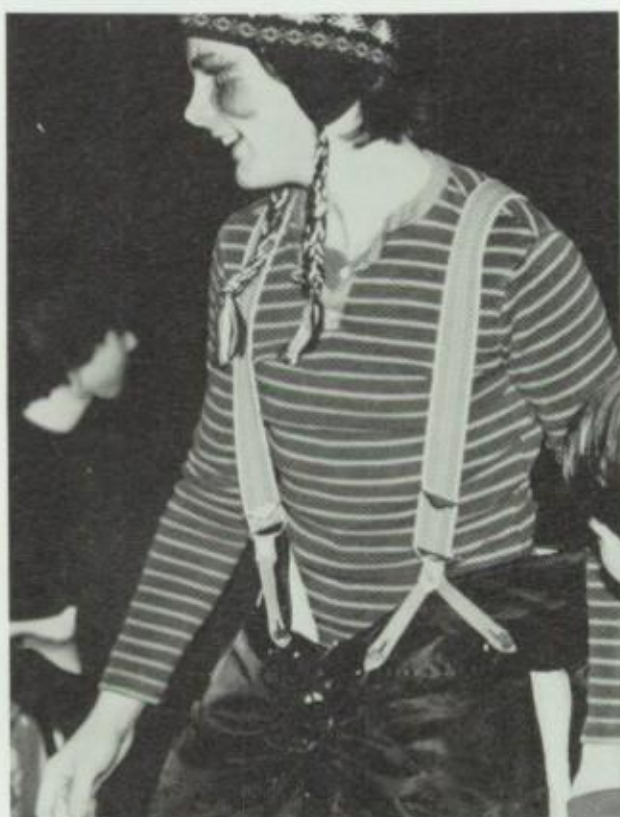

The lights, the trees, all the sparkling glitter! Was this V.A. or a place of holiday delights? The answer, both, Shepardson had been skillfully decorated so that any elf or, yes even Santa Claus, would feel at home. Shortly before six a group of bubbly and excited children appeared. They stared in wonder and awe. The first question out of their mouths was, "When will Santa Claus be here?"

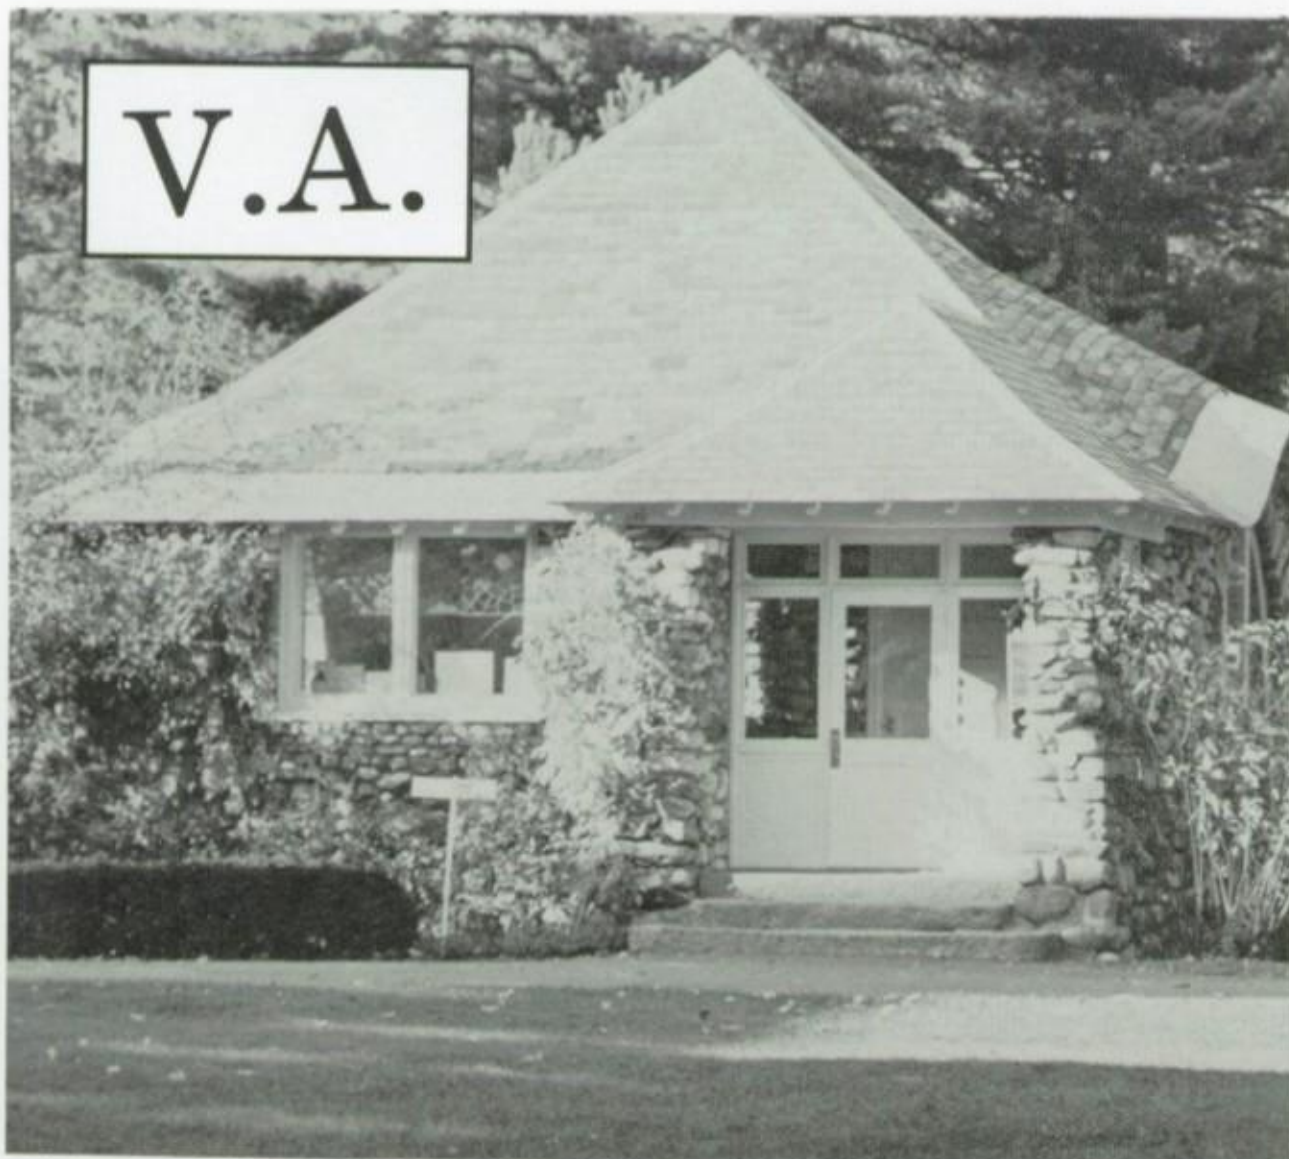

Everyone settled down to a traditional dinner of turkey and stuffing with all the trimmings. Then with a start the children turned to discover brightly dressed elves entering the room. There was a shout of uncontrollable glee as Santa entered to deliver the presents all the children had been waiting for.

As the evening drew to a close, all present left with a feeling of joy and holiday spirit. Never has V.A. seen such an enjoyable evening that benefited not only the Kurn Hattin children but the child that every person has inside themselves.

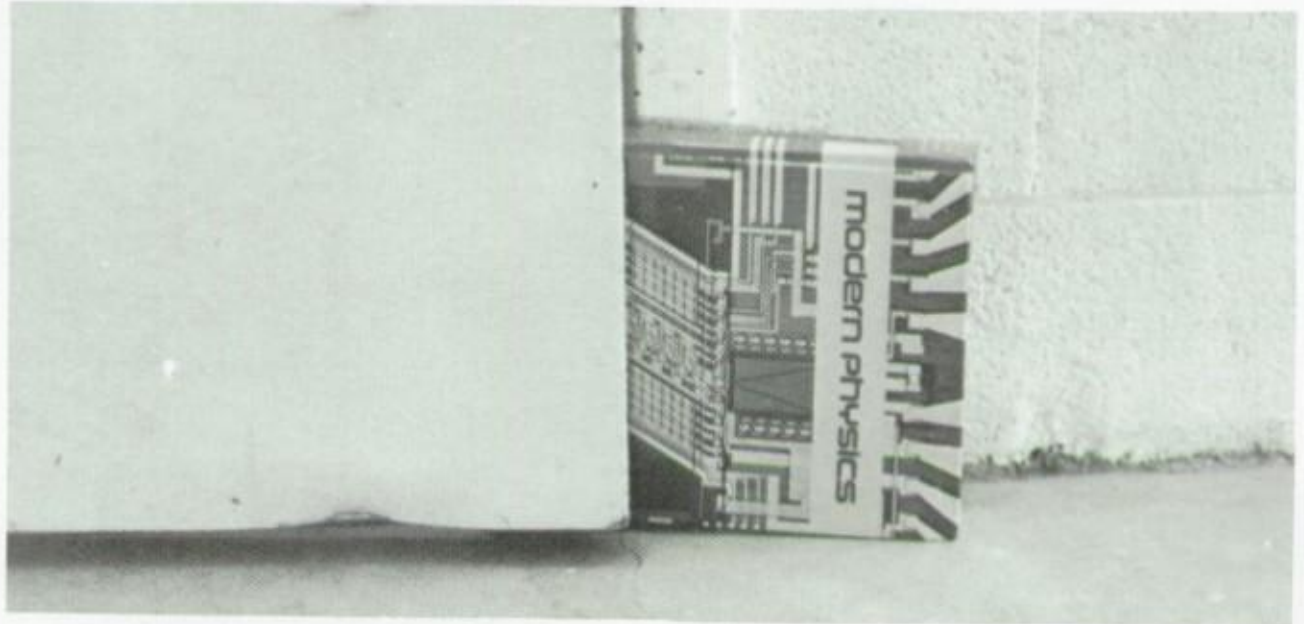

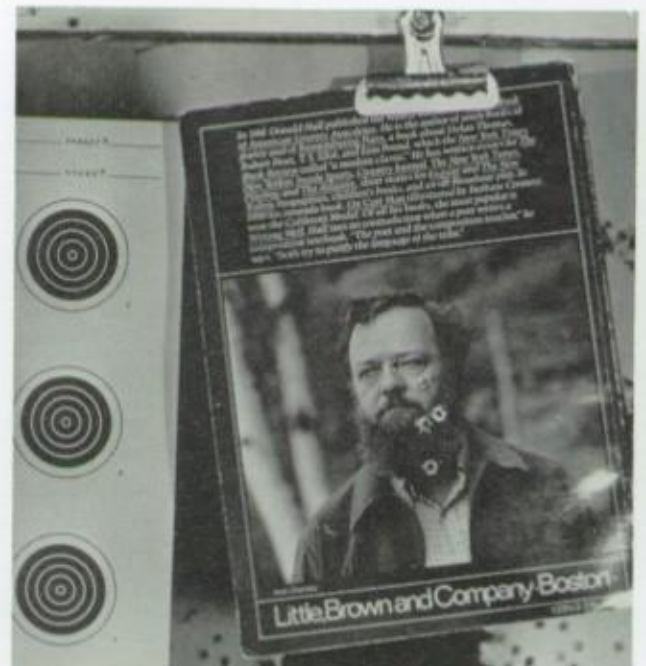

101 Things to Do

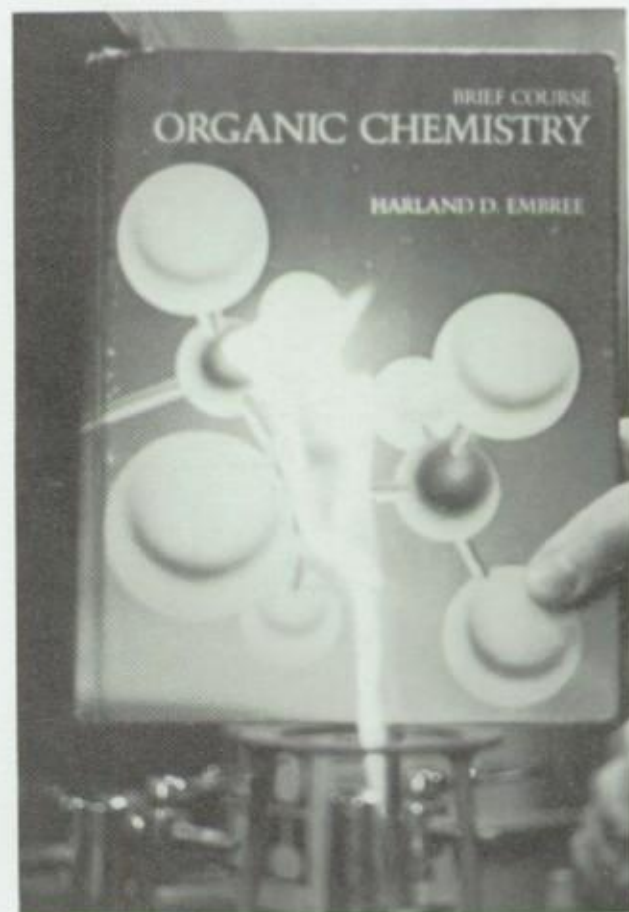

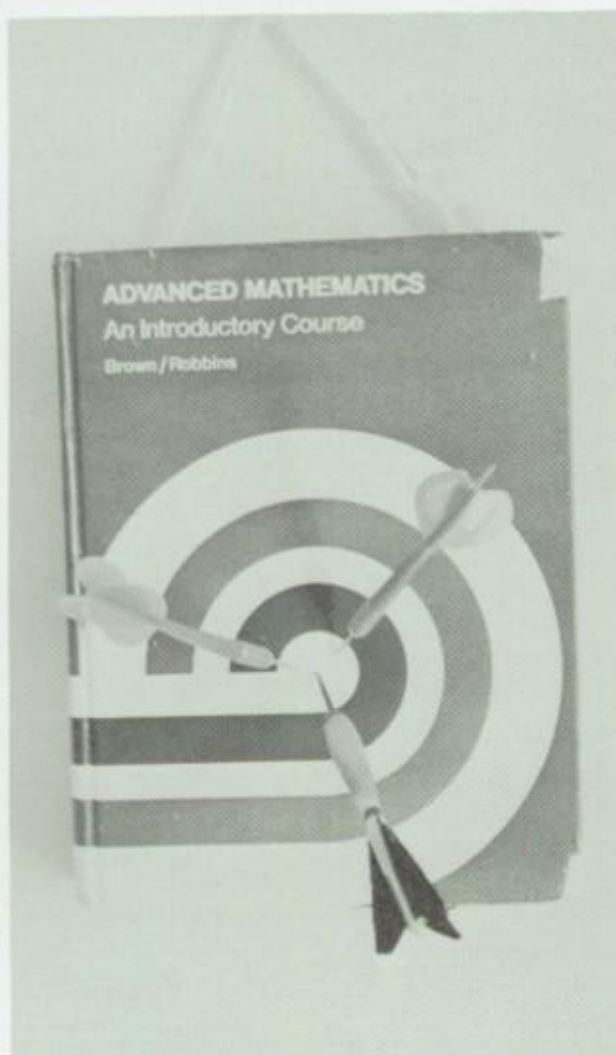

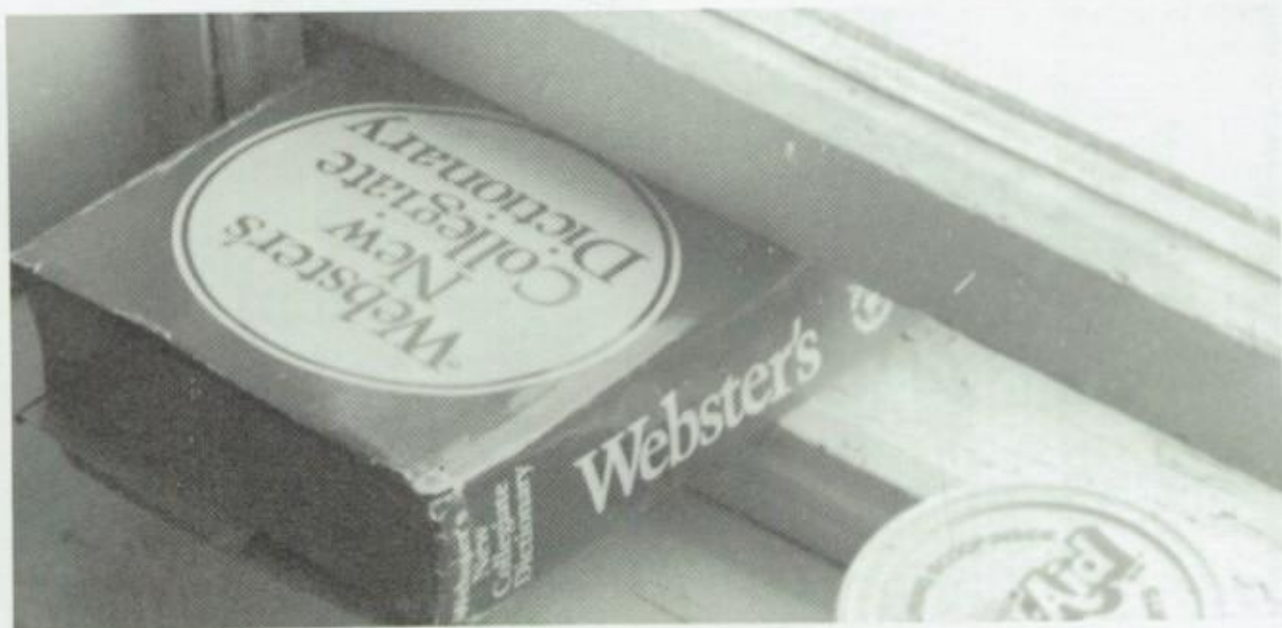

In the late sixties a very smart Vermont Academy student realized that books were made from paper and that paper was made from wood. Thus, books would probably be as good a building material as wood. It was this idea that changed the history for used or so called "dead" books across the land. A biology book is the ideal thing to hold up a speaker or to steady a chair with uneven legs. Soon the use of dead books expanded from construction to encompass an unlimited variety of uses. As targets, they are excellent for a recreational game of darts or as a place to vent your frustrations. What better way to prop open the door when you don't have your key than to use a physics book. Also, the United States Food and Drug Administration has been experimenting with the use of dead books as a source of food for Third World Nations.

The Dining Hall

Arnie's Country Kitchen

The dining hall has many purposes besides eating. It provides a subject for complaining, a place to gather, and a dance hall. Occasionally the dining hall is the location of strange events such as a belly dancer delivering a belly gram and the annual Halloween party.

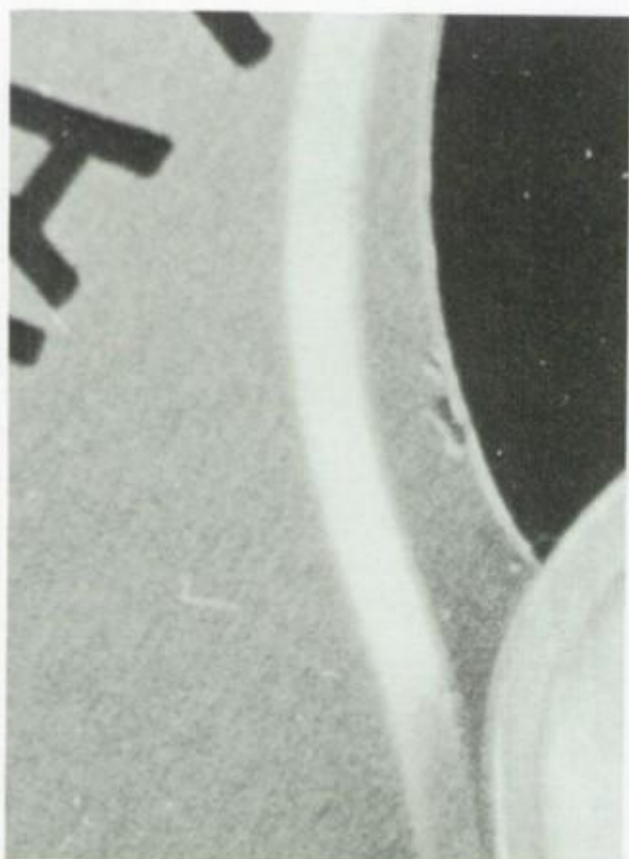

To some the dining hall becomes a slave galley when they face kitchen crew: The horrors of facing rack and worst yet, getting up in the morning to do it. Formal meals are another event that takes place there. The guys enter pulling at their ties and the girls itching to get back into their jeans. Overall it is the site of good times and good food.

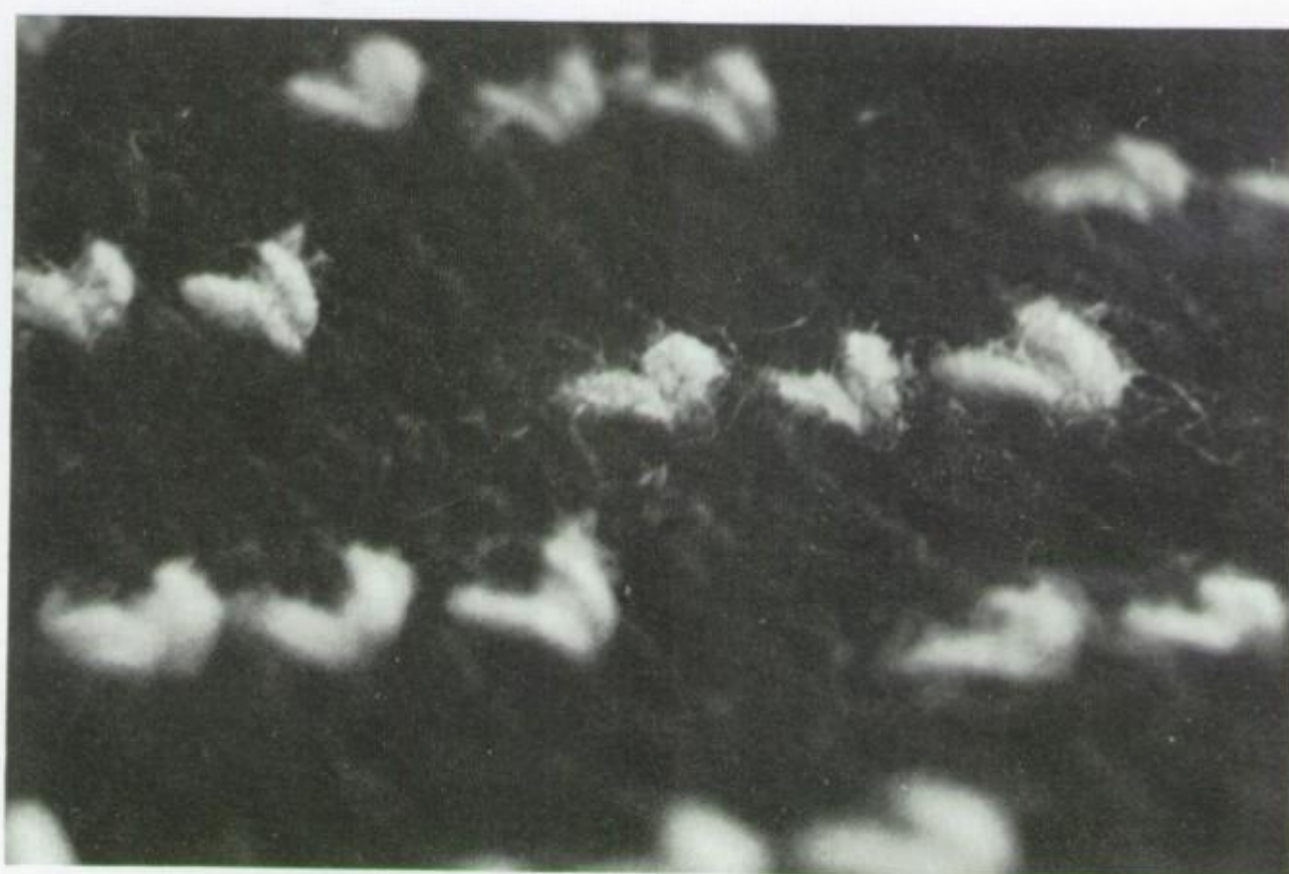

The Eye of The Beholder

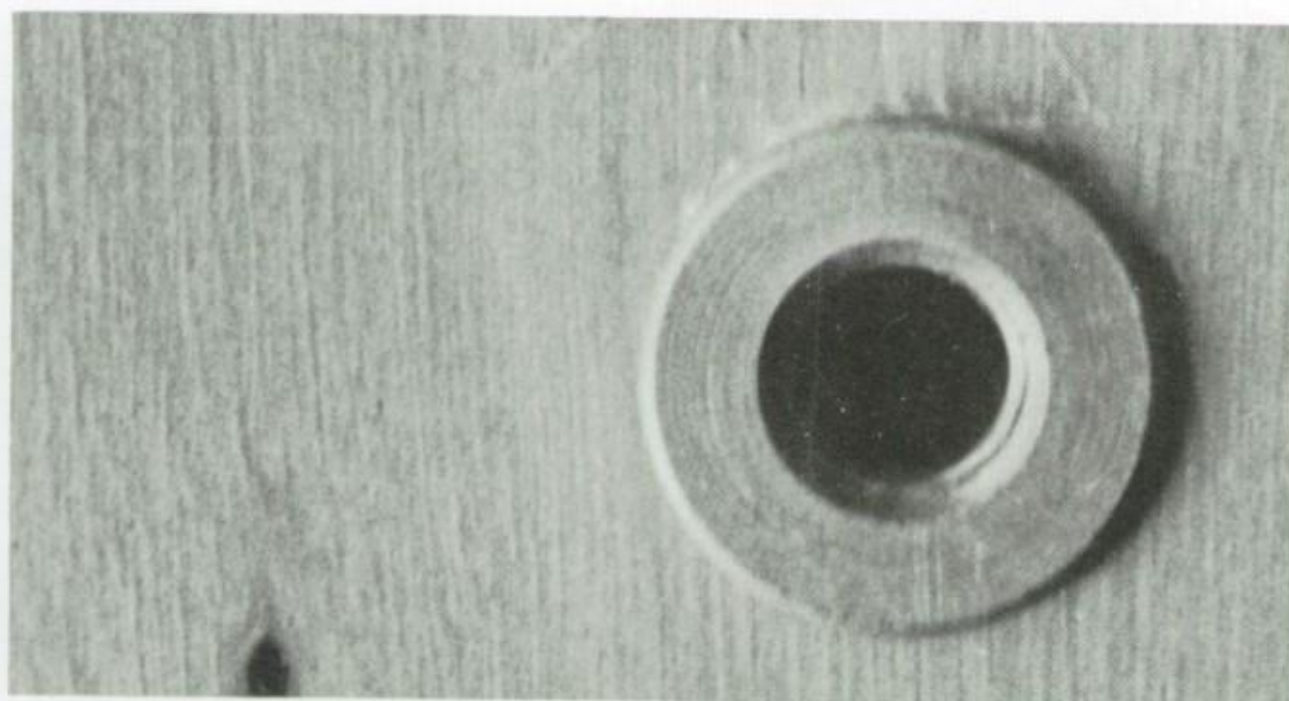

The pictures on the next three pages are of common items that you see and come into contact with every day. However, we have taken a slightly more minute view of these objects. It is your job to identify them. Good luck.

Alpine

Skiing

The alpine ski team is comprised of the top skiers at Vermont Academy. This year's team lost many of their top skiers from last year but they have also gained many talented and energetic people to take their places. The Academy has excellent skiers on both the girls and boys teams. Unlike last year, there has been enough snow to allow the team to use the cross-town ski hill. This cuts down on the cost of travelling to Okemo and gives the skiers more time to practice. The ski team is always a dominant force in the Lakes Region and they plan on remaining so.

Jumping

The jumping team this year started out with many inexperienced and young jumpers. They started with the little jump and slowly advanced to the varsity jump. Due to a lack of snow, the team started out on the grass learning the proper way to "fly" after takeoff, and how to land without doing a nose dive. They trained by running and doing sprints. When the snow finally fell, they couldn't start jumping right away. The first thing to be done was to pack the jump. When that was completed, the team finally started jumping and they have been flying high ever since.

Mr. Kling, S. Geer, M. Culkin, C. Schafer, C. Edgerton, J. Jepson, J. Amsler, R. Wijnhoven, R. Leventhal, T. Haynes.

Cross Country

The cross country ski team was strong and ready to go when the season began. They spent the first few weeks training by running sprints and long distance due to a lack of snow. When the snow finally fell the team was ready. With Ted Peck and Rob Schultheis leading the boys and Annie Guerrero and Tina Wallace heading up the girls, the team quickly advanced to one of the top positions in the Lakes Region.

Hockey

The varsity hockey team started the season with a group of hard-working, experienced players. They trained hard and played well in all of their games. They had many returning varsity players from last year including Whitcomb, Casey, Girouard, and Wood. They also had some players who moved up from the JV Team.

This years JV Hockey Team started with some new and inexperienced players and they also had the advanced members who were in their second and third season. Together this team showed good team spirit and never let a loss stop them from doing their best.

These two teams were hardworking and deserved every game they won.

Wrestling

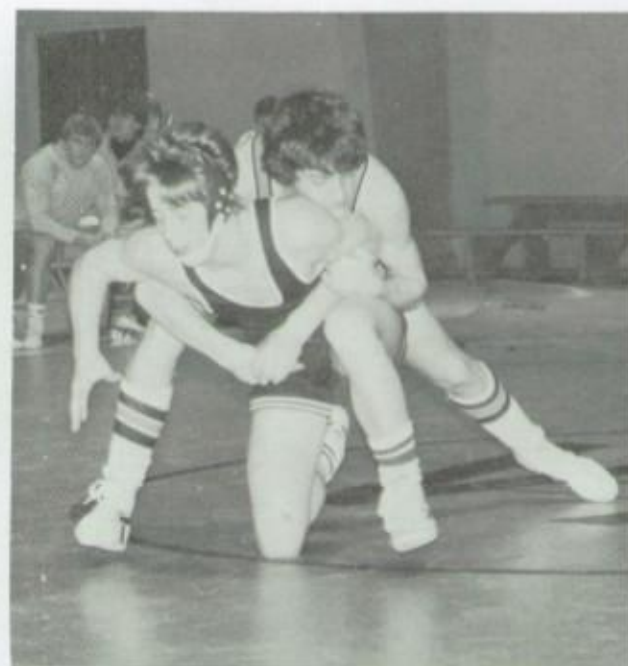

VIA WRESTLING

The Wrestling Team was made up of a group of hardworking individuals who weren't afraid of a little sweat and work. Each of the wrestlers improved greatly as the season went on. They were always willing to accept new ideas and work to better themselves not only as individual wrestlers but also as a team. The wrestling team is a prime example of team psyche. There was never a match that the team was not rooting the wrestler on. Their season went well and they worked hard to keep it that way. Many a Tuesday or Saturday there was no food in their stomachs because of weigh-ins. That is a sure sign of dedication and it showed in the statistics of the season.

Riflery

This year's rifle team consisted of members who each strived for their own and collective betterment of shooting skills. Guided by the experienced riflemen, the beginners improved rapidly to become an important part of the team. The statistics of the season were unparalleled. Vermont Academy is very pleased to have such a team representing it.

Basketball

The varsity boys started the season slowly, losing a number of games. As the season progressed they began to get the feel of things and began working as a team. Their skills improved rapidly and this helped them a great deal in their games. They went on to beat Kimball Union Academy twice, a feat that hasn't been done since 1972. The spirit of the team increased with these two victorys and they closed the season with the satisfaction of having played their best.

The girls varsity team had a very satisfactory season. They started with a young team made up of some very talented players. They remained in first or second place throughout the season, usually right behind KUA. The skills of the team improved a great deal, as they did so did the games they played. One of their greatest qualitys was their incredible amount of team spirit. The less experienced players always felt the support of the advanced players, and never felt left out. This is what a team should be and the girls were a good example.

The JV Boys began the season as a team of players with alot of psyche and quickly proved their potential to be a good team. Their skills improved and they gave the teams they played a good game. There was a great deal of potential on the team that will someday be very beneficial to the varsity team.

OKLAHOMA

"Oklahoma where the wind comes sweeping down the plain." That was to be the first line of a song that would fill fuller Hall during a month of rehearsals and the final two performances on February 18 and 19. The leads were brilliantly performed by Nancy Pill, playing Laurey, Ben Farino playing Curly, Lisa Papineau playing Ado Annie and Scott Love playing Will Parker.

"Oklahoma" is a musical of funny relationships of love and somewhat childish innocence. The audience will laugh as soon as they meet the girl who just can't say no to a kiss, Ado Annie, and boo every time the villainous Jud (Tom Goodings), comes into view. The musical ends as all good musicals should with everybody married and Jud dead.

The musical was directed by the very talented Falko Schilling. He and Mary Hepburn put a great deal of their free time into helping the school produce one of the best musicals it has ever done, "Oklahoma"!

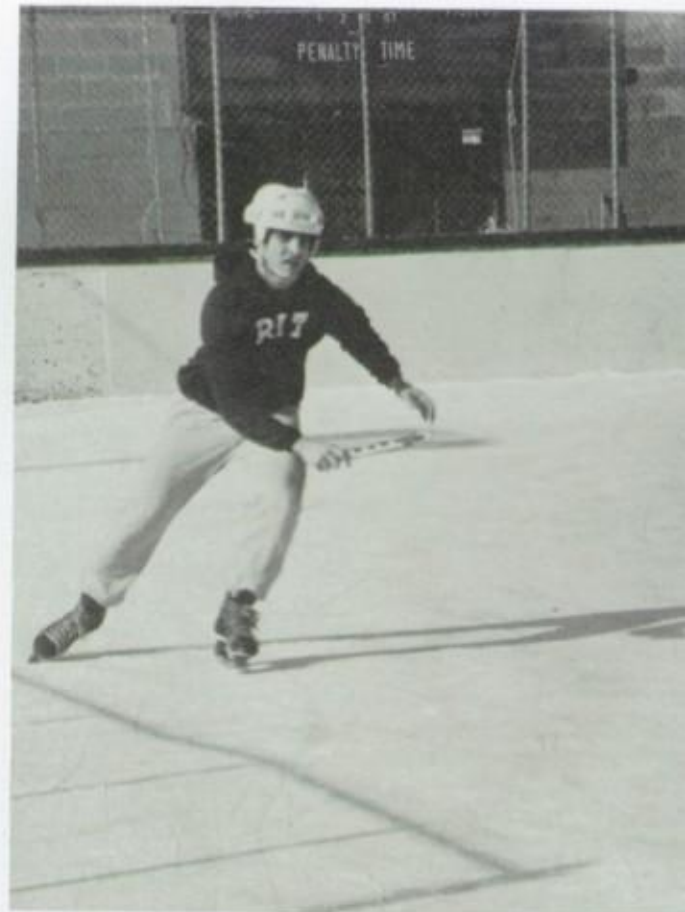

WINTER

No classes! Whoopee! A day full of fun events is in line for today. There will be bubble blowing contests, pie eating contests, relay races, egg tosses, and who knows what all. The skating rink is all set up for a difficult and timed obstacle course. The dorms are bringing out all their creative skills to produce the best ice sculpture.

Mr. Knowlton serves lunch in between the hustle and bustle of the day's activities. Some eat on the run so they don't miss seeing the two man cross-country ski race, not to mention the exciting tobaggan races.

There is a dance with a live band to follow, that everyone will enjoy. There is even a formal meal with teachers as waiters for those lucky guys with dates. The whole day is a total success and things look alot brighter as you head off to your classes the next day.

SPRING

Lacrosse

Lacrosse is the most popular of the spring sports. Its fast-paced excitement is enough to motivate any player who enjoys a challenge. The Varsity lacrosse team has held the position of being number one in the Lakes Region last year.

This year's team looks forward to upholding that title and proving that Vermont Academy lacrosse is the ultimate.

Lacrosse

Baseball

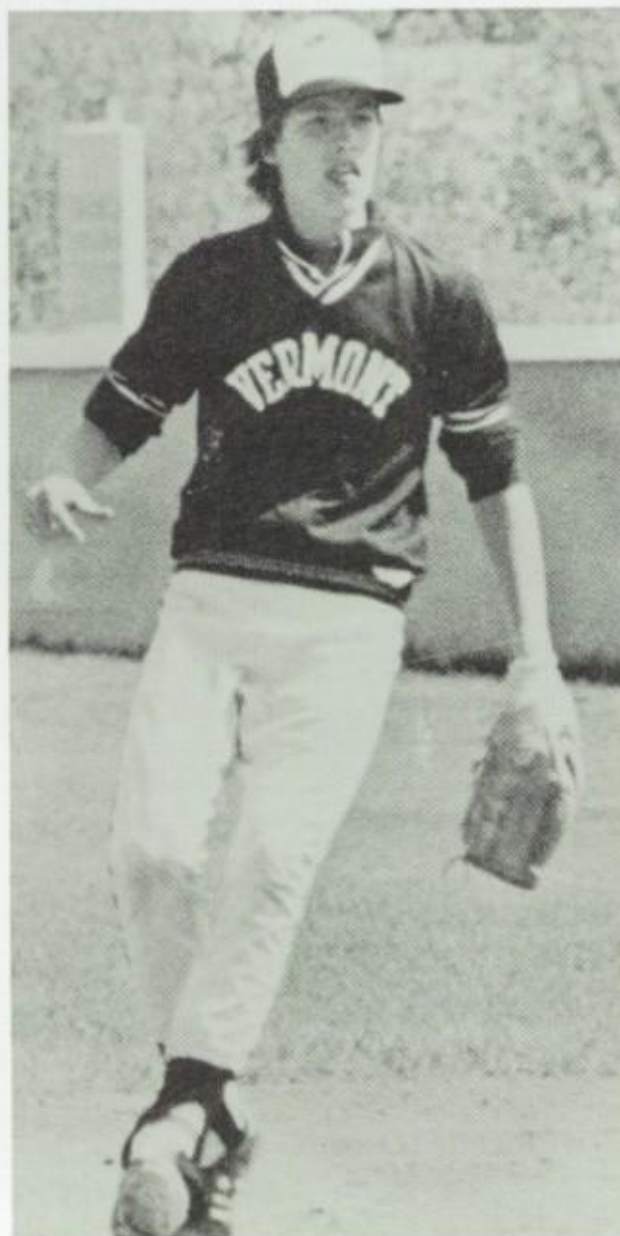

This year's baseball team is coming into the season ready to bring the Lake's Region Championships home. J.C. Girouard, Shawn Scott, Rufus Hale, and Mark Angell will all be returning with their strong arms and batting skills. There are other new players who will be important to the team as there always is. They are all planning on having a successful season, and coming out champions.

Tennis

Tennis

The tennis teams were fairly large in number this year and that was a plus for the chances of a winning season. With the short amount of court time, it was necessary that the teams work hard in the time they had. Tennis is a serious sport which is often disregarded because it is not a contact sport. To those who play, tennis is a game of challenge and ability, not to mention speed.

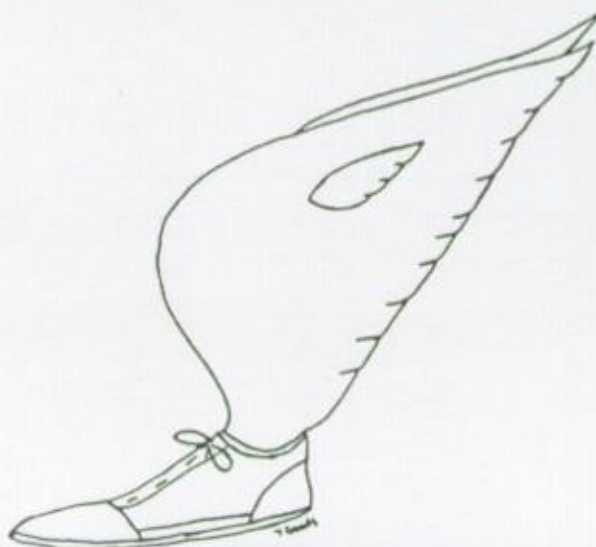

Track

Often the track team starts out slowly due to a small team but often they turn out to be a tough, strong team. There will be many good members returning next year in addition to some new talent, yet to be discovered.

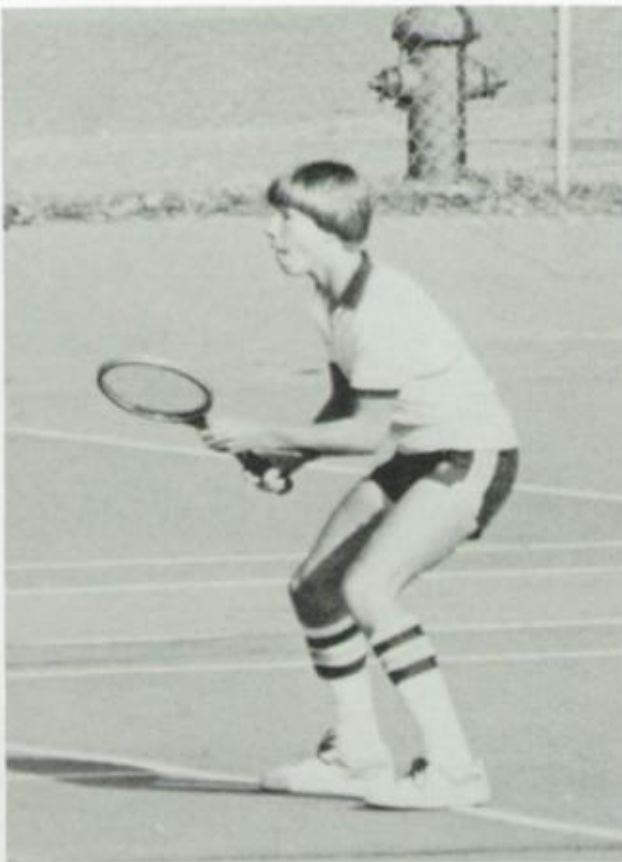

The techniques of the new coaching staff were effective. With a strong women's shotput and quick sprinters, the team should be ready to face anything that comes their way.

LUMBERJACK

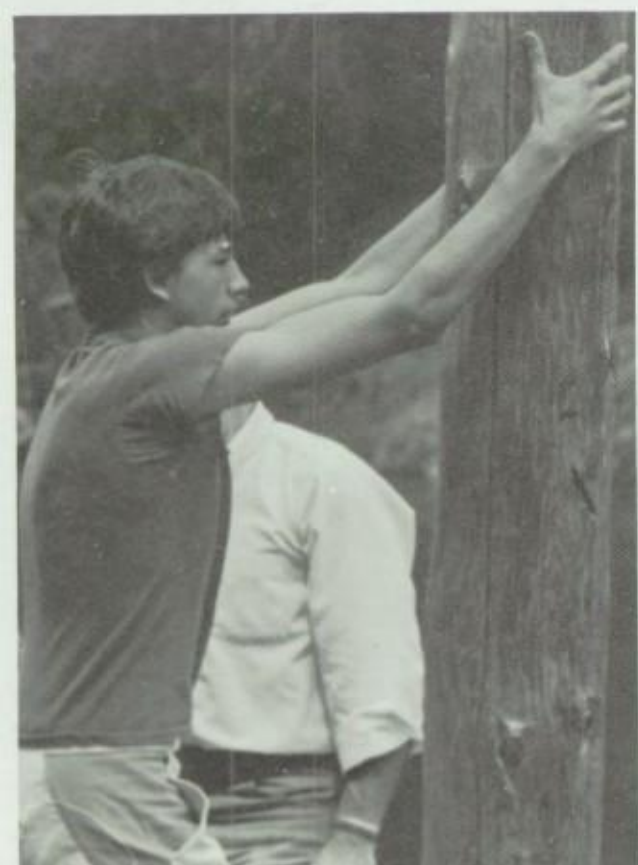

No, breakfast is not at the dining hall this morning. It is breakfast in the great outdoors today. There are pancakes and donuts along with orange juice and coffee, but this is only the beginning of a fun day. At noon the action really begins. Everybody heads off to Bowles Pond for the strenuous events, which pit dorm against dorm and faculty members against students. The pole climb is challenging and only the most talented people can make it to the top. Cutting wood, running the obstacle course and the favorite event of all, canoe jousting, are some of the favorite events. The dynamic team of Randy Wood and his father, won the canoe jousting for the second year in a row.

The whole day was a success due to the hard work and careful planning of Mr. Kling, Mr. Tim Caldwell, Randy Wood and many others. The honor of being the top lumberjacks in the school was taken by the team of Campbell, Stearns and

DAY

Proctor. Due to excellent teamwork of these three dorms they managed to win almost all the events. They will be the first to testify that nothing beats a day in the great outdoors.

ARTS DAY

How do I make a basket or a macrame plant hanger? This question and many others were answered on Arts Day at Vermont Academy. Many talented people came as guests of the school to share their talents with the students and faculty. Beautiful melon baskets were formed, and the tie — dyed shirts were bright and colorful. The paved area in front of Fuller was creatively decorated with chalk drawings.

Lunch was served on the run as everyone rushed from one activity to the next. The car painting was, as always, a big success. It was painted in a number of different fashions with everything from rock group symbols to a prism on the hood. Special masks were made by dipping strips of material into a paper mache type liquid. Then they were painted to resemble anything from clowns to scary witch doctors.

The day ended with a concert. It was the perfect end to an interesting and enjoyable day.

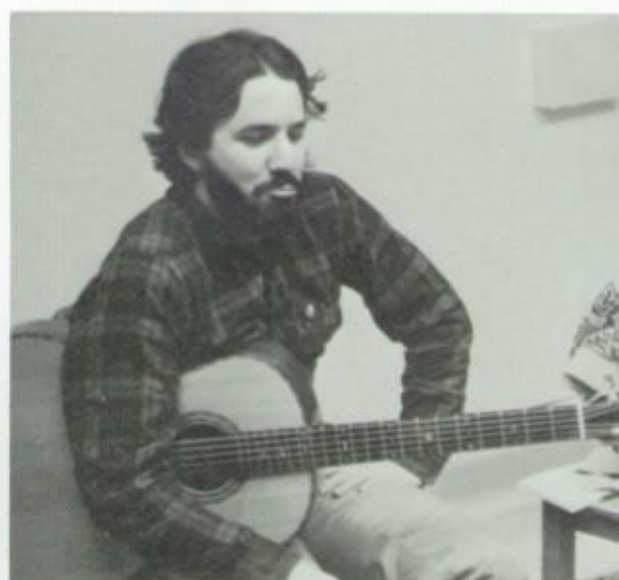

Starting off on the right note.

This year the music department is run by a new member of the faculty at V.A., Ms. Janice Felty. She received her degree in music from the University of Arizona.

Ms. Felty organized the Vermont Academy chorus this year which now meets every day. There is a lot of hard work and a lot of good effort among the students as she teaches them not only to sing but how to read music. She also teaches a music appreciation course. The students study different composers and the variety of musical styles that they represent. The students are also taught some listening skills and basic music notation. Ms. Felty also gives piano and voice lessons. The music department has a student rock ensemble which learns performing and technical skills.

Before Christmas the V.A. chorus gave a dual performance for students, alumni, and parents at the Candle Light Service. It is anticipated that in a couple of years the music department will be very strong.

Trainers

The trainers at Vermont Academy are students who are training to be physical therapists, sports doctors, or athletic trainers. The trainers are the first people to the gym so that they can help anyone with taping, icing, or any other thing you may need to make your practice safer and more comfortable.

The trainers attend home and away athletic contests so that they can help anyone if they get hurt. Usually the injuries are minor ones like sprained ankles and pulled muscles which only need taping, icing, or heating as treatment. However, it is very important for a trainer to be learned enough to handle a major injury like one to the neck or back because the athlete's life may hang in the balance.

The trainers are also responsible for the rehabilitation of an injured student. The most common forms of treatments are whirl pools, exercises, and weight lifting.

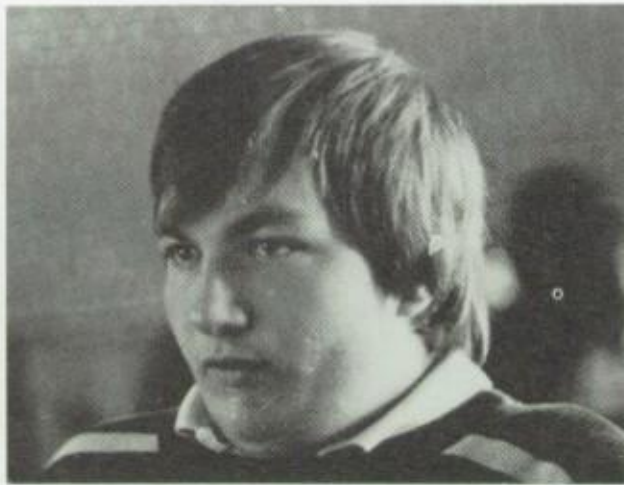

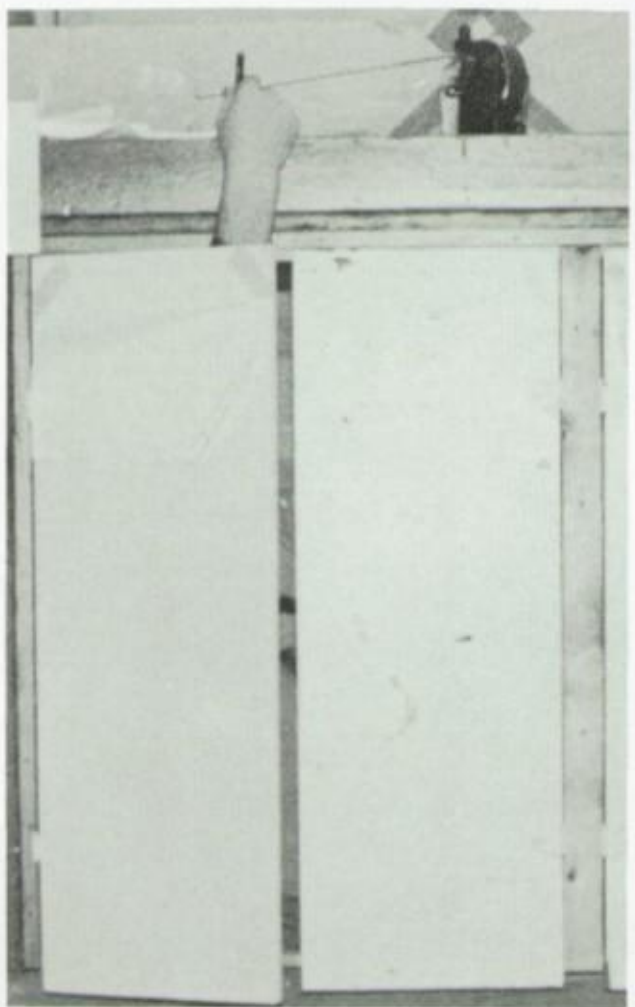

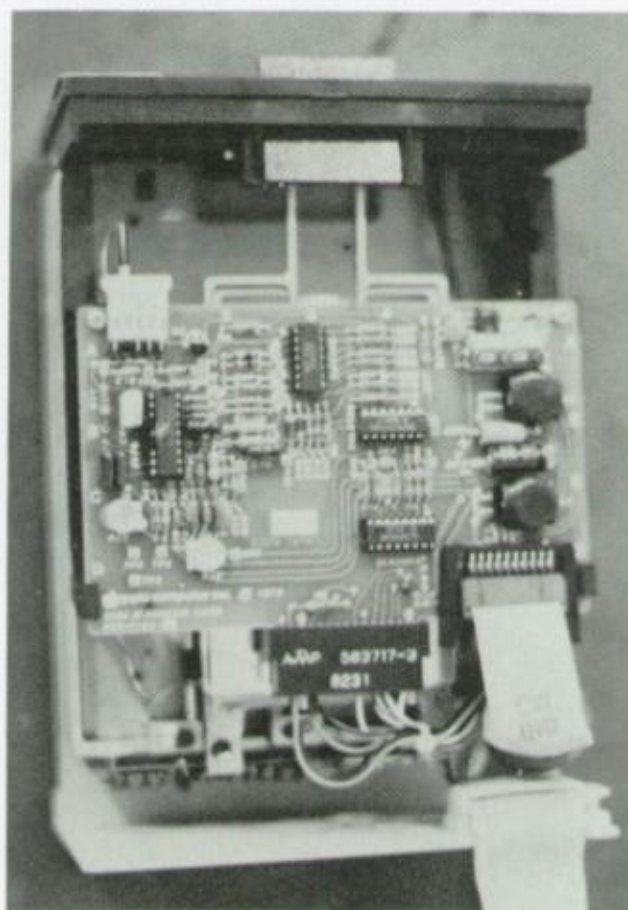

Wildcat '84 Staff

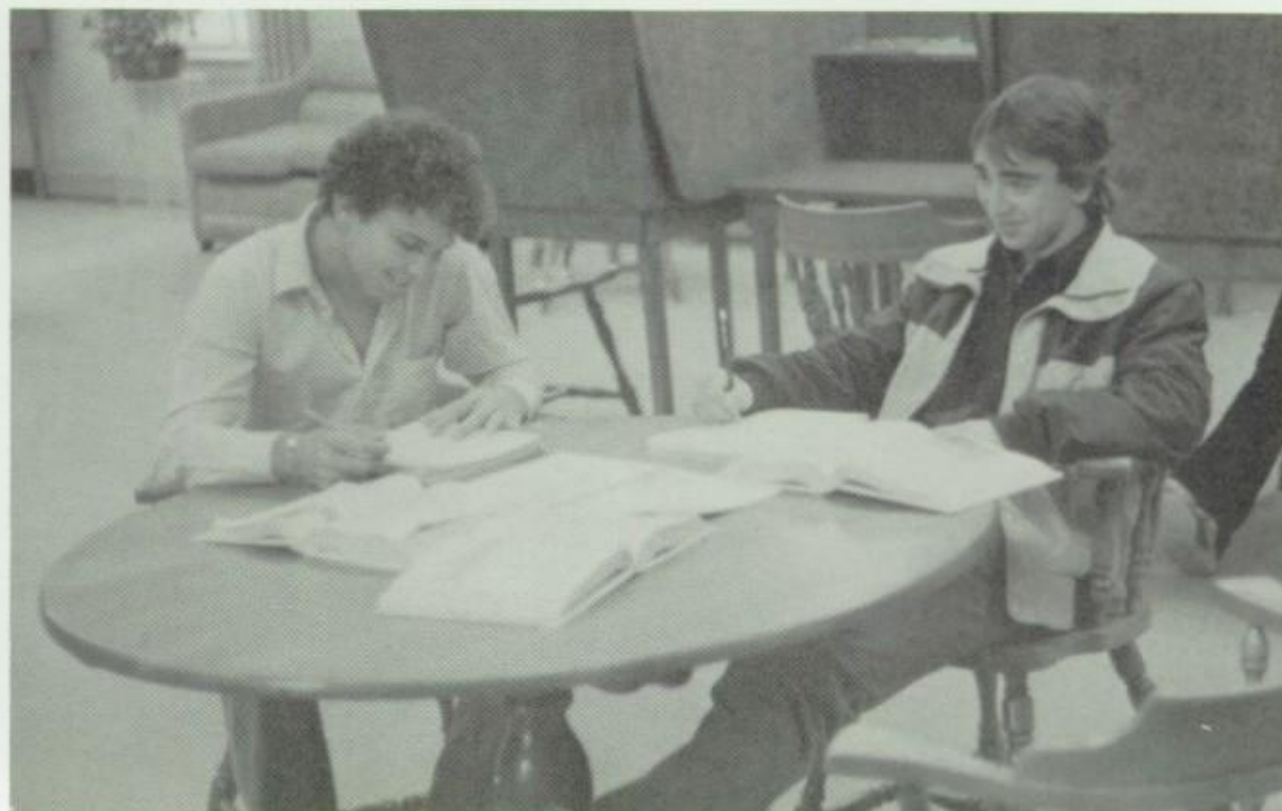

Every year a dedicated group of people get together to put out a yearbook. At the first few meetings the yearbook room is stuffed to the ceiling with people who claim they want to work on the yearbook. After Christmas break the attendance at the meetings has dwindled to maybe fifteen people who have put in time and are willing to do more. People start to disappear and find excuses for not helping as the deadline draw near. This is when the hardcore yearbookers start spending all night and their free periods down in the yearbook room. These are the people I would like to thank for all the time and effort they put in. I would also like to thank those people who had nothing to do with the yearbook until the end when I was desperately asking for help. I also appreciate the faculty's understanding for all the things that had to be done, Mr. Frey for helping us when we were lost on ads, and Doc Hewitt for his advising and prodding through the entire year.
